

TALK TO THE MASTERS

Film Scoring Workshop & Mentoring

Film and series scoring like the pro's: Learning from renowned composers

Online workshop with the renowned Berklee Valencia professors and composers Lucio Godoy and Alfons Conde.

November 7th– 8th 2025, Online

The international workshop is part of the 18th Film Music Days Saxony-Anhalt (November 1st to 8th 2025) in Halle (Saale), Germany. As an advanced student, graduate, or emerging talent, you can expand your repertoire in film music composition and production.

Workshop Summary

Composers and Berklee professors Lucio Godoy and Alfons Conde share the challenges and procedures involved in composing for different clients. Lucio Godoy will focus on how to work with Netflix on a drama series and speak about his recent success — “Respira” (Breathless) which premieres its second season beginning at the end of October of 2025. Alfons Conde will discuss the task of orchestrating for others in a particular case study.

Teacher/ Mentor

Lucio Godoy

Lucio Godoy is a Spanish-Argentinian film composer and music producer, lives in Spain since 1993.

He is the author of more than seventy soundtracks for feature films such as „Triage“, „Intacto“, „Los lunes al sol“, „Los girasoles ciegos“, „La educación de las hadas“, „Mataharis“, „El penalti más largo del mundo“ and „El Aura“, among others, as well as television series such as: „Breathless“ or „Elite“.

He has collaborated as a music producer on soundtracks by other composers, for films such as „While at War (directed by Alejandro Amenábar)“, „The Flower of My Secret“ (directed by Pedro Almodóvar), „Some Time Later“ (directed by José Luis Cuerda), „My Life Without Me“, „A los que aman“ (directed by Isabel Coixet), „La femme de chambre du Titanic“ (directed by Bigas Luna), among others.

Since 2013, Lucio Godoy has held the position of director of the Master's program in Scoring for Film, Television, and Video Games at Berklee Valencia.

Alfons Conde

Conde has written music for a diversity of ensembles -soloists, chamber, orchestra- as well as for TV, has collaborated in the soundtracks of the feature films The Phantom and The Stupids, and has been the orchestral proofreader for projects such as S. Spielberg's Casper-The TV

Series and Toonsylvania, and numerous Disney productions. He has composed the soundtrack for such films as the multi-awarded short Home Delivery (introduced by Guillermo del Toro), and the feature films Excuses! (Joel Joan), The Abandoned, (Nacho Cerdà), The Dark Hour (Elio Quiroga), The Beckoning (No-Do) (Elio Quiroga) or Viento en Contra (Walter Doehner), and has also worked as an arranger or orchestrator on projects such as La Novia (Paula Ortiz) or La Mosquitera (Agustí Vila). On the 2007 season, the NY-based prestigious chamber ensemble Emerson String Quartet premiered his "Color Of Time" String Quartet n. 1 in Valladolid, reprogrammed at Barcelona's Palau de la Música in 2008. Conde is currently a full time professor at the Scoring for Film Television and Video Games Master in Berklee Valencia, where he teaches orchestration and composition.
